*Call to Worship (based on Psalm 30)

Isaiah Jackson-Post

Sing Praise to God!

Give thanks to God’s Holy Name!

God’s favor is with us all of our lives.

Weeping may linger for the night;

But God brings joy with the morning.

In our prosperity, we often turn our backs on God;

Not remembering all our strength comes from God.

But soon we remember;

God is the source of all our joy.

God has turned our mourning into dancing;

God has clothed us with joy, so that our souls may praise God.

We will give thanks to God forever!

Come, let us worship God!

*Opening Hymn “For the Healing of the Nations”

*Opening Prayer

Isaiah Jackson-Post

God of Peace; as we gather together to celebrate the blessings of independence this weekend, our thoughts turn to those who do not celebrate the same joys we do. Forgive us when we have been complacent in binding others and blocking them from celebrating the joys of freedom and the independence we claim as our own. Teach us to share our blessings with our neighbor; and teach us to sow seeds of Peace, rather than seeds of division. Help us to be your hands and feet in the world. In Jesus’ name we pray; Amen.

*Assurance of Blessing

Pastor Rick

We are God's imperfect children, given the freedom to choose the ways of nationalism and greed, or the Way that Jesus taught. Our faith is based in this freedom; and in the knowledge that even when we choose to not follow Jesus, God forgives us. As we repent our sins of separation, God reminds us we are blessed and free. Praise God, from whom all blessings flow!

*Prayer Response "Spirit of the Living God"

#283

Spirit of the Living God, Fall afresh on me!

Spirit of the Living God, Fall afresh on me!

Melt me, mold me, fill me, use me!

Spirit of the Living God, Fall afresh on me!

*Sharing God's Gift of Peace

*At this time, you are invited to greet one another with a hug or a handshake and the words,
"May God's Peace be with you!"*

New Testament Lesson:

Galatians 6:1-10

Isaiah Jackson-Post

Paul, writing to the church in Galatia, implores them not to be bound to the things of the world. He tells them they will reap what they sow; if they sow discord, that is what will prevail; if they sow peace, they will find peace prevailing.

Gospel Lesson:

Luke 10:1-12

Isaiah Jackson-Post

Jesus sends representatives out into the Galilean countryside to spread his message of Peace, sowing seeds so Jesus could come and develop that message further.

Invitation to Communion

Throughout his ministry, Jesus was one who reached across human borders and boundaries, seeing in everyone a common heritage as a child of God. In like manner, everyone is welcome to partake in communion today, no matter who you are or where you are on life's journey.

We will celebrate seated communion today. The ushers will serve you where you sit. The small vessels on the bread plate contain gluten free bread; The center ring of cups contains grape juice; the outer rings contain wine.

You are invited to serve one another. When the plate is handed to the first person in the row, pass it to the next person and let them serve you. As you pass the plates down the row, pass it to the next person and let them serve you. We will all partake of the elements at the same time, when the plates return to the chancel.

Jesus shared many post-Resurrection meals with his friends. When he did, he reminded them of the Commandment that he shared with him at that Last Supper: to be blessings in the world. As we gather for this memory meal, as our ancestors did before us and our decedents will do long after we are gone, we do so remembering those post-Resurrection messages of Jesus and committing ourselves to blessing God by being blessings in God's world.

The invitation is simple: come and eat. Not a meal to nourish the body, but to feed the soul. We receive the bread and the wine connected to the ages. Woven into this time, the hopes and fears of all the generations are present in this meal. There is great joy here! Nobody is turned away when God is the host!

Pastoral Prayer, Silent Prayer & Invocation

Blessing the Children

In the Sacrament of Communion, we most closely see Jesus in our midst. Our desire to share this presence prompts us to celebrate with our children, granting them a special blessing. During the hymn, our children are invited to come forward via the center aisle and receive a special blessing from Pastor Rick.

Prayer of Thanksgiving

Loving God, we thank you for this meal; and ask that through it, the passion of your call to service may be rekindled in our hearts. We thank you for sending Jesus into our midst to remind us of your wisdom, to teach us how to live and to point us to you. We thank you for calling forth your church for service in the world; and for everyone who has dedicated themselves to your service in every time and place before us, and all who will dedicate themselves to your service long after we are gone. We thank you for Jesus teaching us how to pray; and in that Spirit, we gather together as one church, uniting together in prayer:

The LORD's Prayer (sung by congregation, led by Kristin Veteto)
Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.
