Columbia United Church of Christ

CUCC Open and Affirming/Inclusion Covenant:

Columbia United Church of Christ celebrates God's boundless and unconditional love by intentionally welcoming and affirming all God's children.

No matter who you are or where you are on life's journey;
No matter where you are on your faith journey;
No matter your sexual orientation, gender expression, or identity;
No matter your race, culture, ethnicity, nationality, or politics;
No matter your age, ability, health, relationship status, or family structure;
No matter your social, economic, educational, legal, or life circumstances;
You are welcome here!

Called by Jesus to be an Open and Affirming, inclusive faith community, Columbia United Church of Christ commits to welcoming everyone into the full life of our congregation. Our paths and voices may differ, but we journey in faith together.

Adoration of the Magi

Matthew 2:1-12

Ashley Ramirez

Wise Magi from the east come to worship and praise the infant Jesus, lifting him up as the Messiah, in opposition to Herod.

page# 783

*Gathering Song

"We Three Kings"

(insert)

*The three solo verses will be sung by our processing Magi.
Congregation sings verses 1 & 5.*

*Call to Worship

(based on Psalm 72)

Ashley Ramirez

Blessed be the LORD, who alone does wondrous things.

Blessed be God's glorious name forever.

We pray for the blessings of God's provision to be shared with all;
For God's glory to be proclaimed to the whole earth.

Grant us Your wisdom, O God;

Bring righteousness to Your people and justice to the poor.

Help us bring deliverance to those who are oppressed;
The poor, and those who have no helper.

From oppression and violence, God redeems us;

God brings new life to all of God's precious children.

In this Epiphany Season, we gather together, sharing the light;
God's wisdom, shining in our lives.

Come, let us worship God!

*Hymn

"As with Gladness"

*Opening Prayer

Ashley Ramirez

God of revelation; on Epiphany we celebrate that moment when the world suddenly saw and understood Your presence in a new and different way. We pray that we may be open to new and different ways of understanding Your presence as well. Forgive us for the times when our eyes are shut and we cannot see Your guiding star. Open our eyes and open our hearts so we may celebrate as those Magi did long ago, and proclaim Your glory to all the world. In Jesus' name we pray; Amen.

*Assurance of Blessing

Pastor Rick

God's blessings are revealed to us in new and different ways all the time; even when we fail to see them. But as we gather to praise and adore God, we know that as blessed children of God, we are forgiven for all our transgressions. Through our repentance and God's grace, we are forgiven, beloved and blessed. Praise be to God!

Let it shine, let it shine, let it shine!

Gospel Lesson

Matthew 2:13-21

Ashley Ramirez

The birth stories of Jesus continue, as we hear the consequences of the actions of the Magi. Refusing to yield to violent agenda of King Herod, the Magi return home another way. Herod is furious and commits heinous actions against the populace. The Holy Family is saved by divine intervention; and when the danger is over, they return to the Holy Land. The dynamic between the narcissistic bullying of their national leader and the pastoral presence of the Magi is similar to the dynamic between the anticipated arrival of a conquering war-like Messiah held against the humble arrival of our Savior.

*Invitation to Communion

We will be celebrating altar communion this morning; and no matter who you are or where you are on life's journey, you are invited forward to celebrate this joyful meal.

Matthew's Gospel tells us of the Magi who searched all over the Galilean countryside for Jesus and, upon finding him, bowed down and worshipped him. They were courageous enough to maintain their search; and they were faithful enough to recognize him when they found him. Like the Magi, we search for Jesus. Often, we find him in this memory meal; this sacrament of communion.

As we gather around this table we are reminded of Jesus' incarnation in our hearts and in the world; and Jesus' command to love everyone extravagantly. As we gather, we express that extravagant welcome, inviting all to join us. All are invited, all are welcome, all are called. Come, join in the feast!

Liturgical Dance Trio: Community and Communion

“Vision: The Music of Hildegard von Bingen”

By Souther and Van Evera

On Communion Sunday, we remember how connected we all are. We are part of a larger community as we break bread and share the wine together. Communion is both a sacred individual act and a shared experience. The music of Richard Souther and Emily Van Evera, interpreted through dance, lifts up the ministry of 12th century abbess Hildegard von Bingen, calling us to unity.

Pastoral Prayer; Silent Prayer

Invocation

Blessing the Children

“What Child is This”

#148

In the Sacrament of Communion, we most clearly see Jesus in our midst. Our desire to share this presence prompts us to celebrate with our children, granting them a special blessing. During the hymn, our children are invited to come forward via the center aisle and receive a special blessing from Pastor Rick.

Institution; Fraction; Distribution

Please come forward via the center aisle to receive and share communion, remembering the ministry of Jesus Christ and the blessings he brings us. The center ring of cups contain grape juice, and the vessels on the paten contain gluten free bread.

Communion Music

“Still, Still, Still”

Gina Pierson
Arr. Cindy Berry

We thank You, Most Holy God, for refreshment at Your table where we receive the gifts of Christ Jesus. Give us the grace to praise You with our lives, our words, our deeds. We give thanks for the vision of the Magi, searching diligently for You and recognizing You when they found the infant. And now, promising to continue the quest of the Magi and search for Jesus in our world every day, we gather together as one family of faith, singing the prayer You taught us:

The LORD's Prayer (sung by the congregation)

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

Matthew 2:1-12

- 1 In the time of King Herod, after Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea, magi from the east came to Jerusalem,
- 2 asking, “Where is the child who has been born king of the Jews? For we observed his star in the east and have come to pay him homage.”
- 3 When King Herod heard this, he was frightened, and all Jerusalem with him,
- 4 and calling together all the chief priests and scribes of the people, he inquired of them where the Messiah was to be born.
- 5 They told him, “In Bethlehem of Judea, for so it has been written by the prophet:
- 6 ‘And you, Bethlehem, in the land of Judah, are by no means least among the rulers of Judah, for from you shall come a ruler who is to shepherd my people Israel.’ ”
- 7 Then Herod secretly called for the magi and learned from them the exact time when the star had appeared.
- 8 Then he sent them to Bethlehem, saying, “Go and search diligently for the child, and when you have found him, bring me word so that I may also go and pay him homage.”
- 9 When they had heard the king, they set out, and there, ahead of them, went the star that they had seen in the east, until it stopped over the place where the child was.
- 10 When they saw that the star had stopped, they were overwhelmed with joy.
- 11 On entering the house, they saw the child with Mary, his mother, and they knelt down and paid him homage. Then, opening their treasure chests, they offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh.
- 12 And having been warned in a dream not to return to Herod, they left for their own country by another road.

Matthew 2:13-21

13 Now after they had left, an angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream and said, “Get up, take the child and his mother, and flee to Egypt, and remain there until I tell you, for Herod is about to search for the child, to destroy him.”

14 Then Joseph got up, took the child and his mother by night, and went to Egypt
15 and remained there until the death of Herod. This was to fulfill what had been spoken by the Lord through the prophet, “Out of Egypt I have called my son.”

16 When Herod saw that he had been tricked by the magi, he was infuriated, and he sent and killed all the children in and around Bethlehem who were two years old or under, according to the time that he had learned from the magi.

17 Then what had been spoken through the prophet Jeremiah was fulfilled:

18 “A voice was heard in Ramah, wailing and loud lamentation, Rachel weeping for her children; she refused to be consoled, because they are no more.”

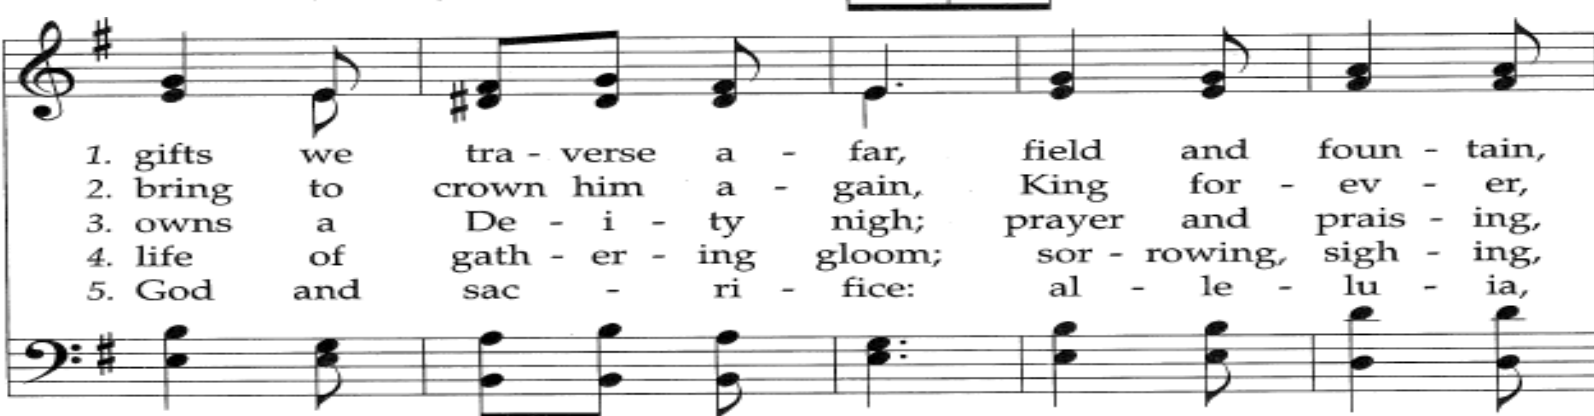

19 When Herod died, an angel of the Lord suddenly appeared in a dream to Joseph in Egypt and said,

20 “Get up, take the child and his mother, and go to the land of Israel, for those who were seeking the child’s life are dead.”

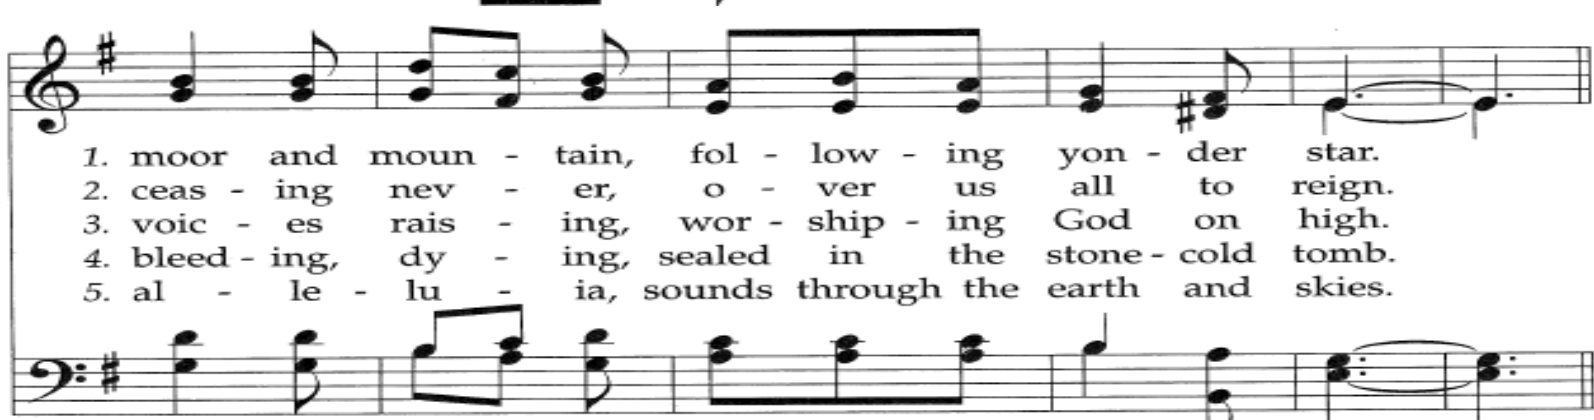

21 Then Joseph got up, took the child and his mother, and went to the land of Israel.

The first system of the musical score is in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. It consists of a treble and a bass staff. The treble staff contains a melody with eighth and quarter notes, while the bass staff provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and single notes.

as with joy they hailed its light, lead-ing on-ward, beam-ing bright;
there to bend the knee be-fore One whom heaven and earth a-dore;
so may we with ho-ly joy, pure and free from sin's al-loy,

The second system continues the melody and accompaniment from the first system. The lyrics are aligned with the notes in the treble staff.

so, true Morn-ing Star, may we ev-er-more your splen-dor see.
so may we with will-ing feet ev-er seek your mer-cy seat.
all our cost-liest trea-sures bring, Christ, to you from whom they spring.

The third system concludes the piece. The treble staff ends with a final cadence, and the bass staff continues with a steady accompaniment. The lyrics are aligned with the notes in the treble staff.
