*Call to Worship (based on Psalm 99)

Sam Schupp

God, Your Kingdom is established over all;
The earth rejoices in the vision of Your economy of justice!

God is exalted over all; we rejoice in God’s name!
Let all people praise God’s great and glorious name!

Mighty God, lover of justice, You have established equity.
You have established justice and righteousness in Your people!

We remember the stories of our traditions;
Those who cried out to you, O God for justice;

You answered them, O God, by establishing relationship.
They kept Your decrees and the statutes You gave them!

We know that God is Still Speaking to us today;
Challenging us towards Justice, Righteousness and Shalom!
Come, let us worship God!

*Opening Hymn “Immortal, Invisible, God Only Wise” #1

*Opening Prayer Morgan Lavelly

God of transformational justice; you call us into your church to be transformed into something more; stewards of your kingdom goals, working to make them a reality in the world. Forgive us for the times when we fall short of your call. Forgive us when our stewardship of your world is lacking. Inspire in us the faith to fully give ourselves to you; and the realization that everything belongs to you and we are only stewards of it. We thank you for the opportunity to serve, to continue Christ’s ministry. In Jesus’ name we pray; Amen.

*Assurance of Blessing

Pastor Rick

God gave humanity dominion over Creation, calling on us to be gracious stewards of God's world; nurturing, challenging, transforming. Even when we fail in this call, God forgives us and continues to love us. Through God's gracious love, we are all forgiven and blessed, transformed into something more. Amen.

*Prayer Response

“Weave”

Weave, weave! Weave us together!
Weave us together in Unity and Love!
Weave, weave! Weave us together!
Weave us together; together in Love!

*Sharing God's Gift of Peace

*At this time, you are invited to greet one another with a hug or a handshake and the words,
“May God's Peace be with you!”*

Hebrew Scriptures: Exodus 34:29-35

Sam Schupp

Moses, after communing with God, comes down from the mountain transformed. The Israelites were afraid, seeing that he was not the same as he was before communing with God. Though they were afraid, they had respect for the message Moses brings them because he spoke with authority sharing God's Word. Their fears were soon relieved.

Gospel Lesson: Luke 9:28-35

Morgan Lavelly

Jesus climbs a mountain to spend time apart from the crowds and commune with God. He takes with him Peter, James and John. While there he communes with Moses and Elijah and is transformed, getting himself ready for the journey to Jerusalem and Crucifixion. When he again addresses the crowds, he speaks as one with a finite amount of time left.

Invitation to Communion

Symbolizing the call to follow Jesus, we will celebrate altar communion this Sunday, coming forward to receive the elements. EVERYONE is welcome to partake in this meal, no matter what your faith is, no matter who you are or where you are on life's journey.

*Come forward through the center aisle. There will be two communion stewards on the North side of the Sanctuary, and two on the South side. You can go to either pair. Take a piece of bread, pause a moment and eat with the steward; then proceed to the cup. Pause a moment and drink the cup with the steward; then place the cup back in the communion tray.

The small vessels on the bread plate contain gluten free bread, the center ring of cups contains grape juice, the outer rings contain wine. For those with mobility challenges, communion will be brought to you.

The invitation is simple: come and eat. Not a meal to nourish the body, but to feed the soul. We receive the bread and the wine connected to the ages. Woven into this time, the hopes and fears of all the generations are present in this meal. There is great joy here! Nobody is turned away when God is the host!

Pastoral Prayer, Silent Prayer & Invocation

Blessing the Children

In the Sacrament of Communion, we most clearly see Jesus in our midst. Our desire to share this presence prompts us to celebrate with our children, granting them a special blessing. During the hymn, our children are invited to come forward via the center aisle and receive a special blessing from Pastor Rick.

Prayer of Thanksgiving

We thank you, God for refreshment at your table; where your Wisdom intercedes in our lives in places where we need it most. When the pressures and priorities of the world distract us, you transform us into something more; your servant leaders in the world. Thank you for this meal to nourish our souls. Now we gather together as your people, singing together the prayer you taught us:

*The LORD's Prayer

(sung by congregation, led by James Melton)

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.
