(based on Psalm 116)

Ashley Ramirez

What should we return to God,
Thanks for all God’s blessings to us?

We will lift up the cup of Salvation;
We will call upon the name of God!

God calls us to respond with love,
Paying vows to God in the presence of God’s people.

Precious in God’s sight is the devotion of God’s people!
Precious in God’s sight is the service of God’s faithful ones!

We are God’s servants, and we carry that identity in our lives.
God has loosened our bonds; God leads us away from aimlessness.

We will offer our vows to God in the presence of God’s people;
We give ourselves and our lives to God. Praise God!
Come, let us worship God!

Ashley Ramirez

God of love and promise; You speak of Your provision even in times of despair. Often we find Your promises hard to believe. Often we laugh, thinking there is no way Your promises could be fulfilled. But You continue to amaze us with Your blessings, even in the midst of despair. Teach us to have faith in Your promises, teach us to have faith in Your provision, teach us to have hope that, even when things seem dark, Your light will shine through. Remind us that we are Your blessed and beloved children, and inspire us to boldly serve as Your witnesses. We ask these prayers in Jesus’ name; Amen.

- *Assurance of Blessing Pastor Rick
 Jesus prays for unity, that all may be one; yet often, based in fear, we reject this idea. But even when we do, God still loves and welcomes us, encourages and guides us. Through our repentance and God's grace, we are forgiven, beloved and blessed. Praise be to God!

In one of the most foundational stories of our faith, the Triune God appears to Abraham and makes covenant with him. They promise the impossible and delivers on it. God brings laughter and joy to Sarah when she felt her joy was gone forever.

Jesus is challenging his disciples to stand up for justice and righteousness, even when those in authority oppose them; even when the opposition is family. He relates his message to the idea of family dynamics, telling them they must be willing to sacrifice everything if they are going to be loyal disciples.

Community Prayer & Silent Prayer; The LORD's Prayer

In an effort to encourage inclusion, we suggest using the address "Creator God" in our unison recitation of The Lord's Prayer. You are certainly welcome to say "Our Father" instead of "Creator," "Trespases" instead of "debts," or "Thy" instead of "Your" if you prefer.

Creator God in heaven, hallowed be Your name. Your kingdom come, Your will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Yours is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

God of Inspiration, we seek to be messengers of peace, justice, hope, love, and joy for all humankind; including and especially those who are disenfranchised by the world. Take these gifts and let them be used to advance that message; that all may be included in Your expressions of Your love. Amen.

*Response "Let There Be Peace on Earth"

Let there be Peace on Earth and Let it Begin with me!
Let there be Peace on Earth; the Peace that was meant to be!
With God our Creator, Children all are we!
Let us walk with each other in perfect harmony!
Let Peace begin with me; let this be the moment now!
With every step I take let this be my solemn vow:
To take each moment and live each moment in peace eternally!
Let there be Peace on Earth; and let it begin with me!

Postlude Jolene Hackman

Juneteenth!

What is “Juneteenth” and why do we suddenly keep hearing about it? It seems like all of a sudden we started hearing about the Juneteenth holiday and now it is even listed on our calendars. What is this day?

Juneteenth is nothing new. This holiday has been observed regionally since 1866, well before “Father’s Day.” On this day, we recognize and celebrate the emancipation of enslaved Americans, finally freed through General Order #3 by Union Army General Gordon Granger. The issuance of this order on June 19, 1865 in Galveston, Texas was the final end to the legalized institution of slavery in the US and the final defeat for those traitors to the United States, the Confederacy.

People erroneously think that the Emancipation Proclamation of 1863 ended slavery. This proclamation, issued by President Abraham Lincoln, was ignored by many states. Enforcement fell upon the Union Army, and it was stretched thin, fighting the forces of the traitorous Confederates. Full enforcement of the Emancipation Proclamation did not happen until the issuance of General Order #3.

Beginning in 1866, formerly enslaved people began celebrating the true end of slavery with Juneteenth celebrations. These celebrations were coordinated and hosted by church communities, and they began in Galveston, Texas. They quickly spread across the South to other (mostly Black) communities, recognizing and celebrating their independence and the end to legal institutionalized slavery in the US.

In 1980, the State of Texas issued a proclamation making Juneteenth an official state holiday. By 2019, 47 states recognized Juneteenth in some form. In 2021, the US Senate unanimously passed a resolution making Juneteenth a Federal Holiday; the same resolution passed overwhelmingly in the House of Representatives with a vote of 415-14. On June 17, 2021, President Joe Biden signed the bill into law, making Juneteenth the first day to attain legal observance as a federal holiday since Martin Luther King Jr. Day was designated by President Ronald Reagan in 1983.

Genesis 18:1-15; 21:1-7

1 The LORD appeared to Abraham by the oaks of Mamre, as he sat at the entrance of his tent in the heat of the day.

2 He looked up and saw three men standing near him. When he saw them, he ran from the tent entrance to meet them and bowed down to the ground.

3 He said, “My lord, if I find favor with you, do not pass by your servant. 4 Let a little water be brought, and wash your feet, and rest yourselves under the tree.

5 Let me bring a little bread, that you may refresh yourselves, and after that you may pass on—since you have come to your servant.” So they said, “Do as you have said.”

6 And Abraham hastened into the tent to Sarah and said, “Make ready quickly three measures of choice flour, knead it, and make cakes.”

7 Abraham ran to the herd and took a calf, tender and good, and gave it to the servant, who hastened to prepare it.

8 Then he took curds and milk and the calf that he had prepared and set it before them, and he stood by them under the tree while they ate.

9 They said to him, “Where is your wife Sarah?” And he said, “There, in the tent.”

10 Then one said, “I will surely return to you in due season, and your wife Sarah shall have a son.” And Sarah was listening at the tent entrance behind him.

11 Now Abraham and Sarah were old, advanced in age; it had ceased to be with Sarah after the manner of women.

12 So Sarah laughed to herself, saying, “After I have grown old, and my husband is old, shall I be fruitful?”

13 The LORD said to Abraham, “Why did Sarah laugh and say, ‘Shall I indeed bear a child, now that I am old?’

14 Is anything too wonderful for the LORD? At the set time I will return to you, in due season, and Sarah shall have a son.”

15 But Sarah denied, saying, “I did not laugh,” for she was afraid. He said, “Yes, you did laugh.”

21 The LORD dealt with Sarah as he had said, and the LORD did for Sarah as he had promised.

2 Sarah conceived and bore Abraham a son in his old age, at the time of which God had spoken to him.

3 Abraham gave the name Isaac to his son whom Sarah bore him.

4 And Abraham circumcised his son Isaac when he was eight days old, as God had commanded him.

5 Abraham was a hundred years old when his son Isaac was born to him.

6 Now Sarah said, "God has brought laughter for me; everyone who hears will laugh with me."

7 And she said, "Who would ever have said to Abraham that Sarah would nurse children? Yet I have borne him a son in his old age."

Matthew 10:34-39

34 "Do not think that I have come to bring peace to the earth; I have not come to bring peace but a sword.

35 For I have come to set a man against his father, and a daughter against her mother, and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law,

36 and one's foes will be members of one's own household.

37 "Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me, and whoever loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me,

38 and whoever does not take up the cross and follow me is not worthy of me.

39 Those who find their life will lose it, and those who lose their life for my sake will find it.

JUNETEENTH AND PRIDE

This week, we will celebrate Juneteenth– a Federal Holiday with one of the oldest histories of any we celebrate. This holiday has been observed regionally since 1866. The day goes by many names, including Jubilee Day, Emancipation Day, Black Independence Day, and Freedom Day. The official name of this holiday is “Juneteenth National Independence Day.” On this day, we recognize and celebrate the emancipation of enslaved Americans.

People erroneously think that the Emancipation Proclamation of 1863 ended slavery. This proclamation, issued by President Abraham Lincoln, did signal an end to the idea of slavery, but in many states the practice still continued. Enforcement of the Emancipation Proclamation fell upon the Union Army, and it was stretched thin, fighting the forces of the Confederates. Full enforcement of the Emancipation Proclamation did not happen until the issuance of General Order #3 on June 19, 1865, in the last stronghold of slavery in Galveston, Texas.

Beginning in 1866, freed enslaved people in Galveston began celebrating the anniversary of the true end of slavery with Juneteenth celebrations. These celebrations were coordinated and hosted by churches. They quickly spread across the South to other communities, recognizing and celebrating their independence and the end to legal institutionalized slavery in the US. During the Great Migration, starting in 1910, many of these Southern traditions were carried to other parts of the country.

In 1980, the State of Texas issued a proclamation making Juneteenth an official state holiday. In 1981, 15 more Southern states joined in, making it a state holiday there, as well. By 2019, 47 states recognized Juneteenth in some form. After the murder of George Floyd on May 25, 2020, nine more states made Juneteenth an official state holiday. In 2021, the US Senate unanimously passed a resolution making Juneteenth a Federal Holiday; the same resolution passed overwhelmingly in the House of Representatives with a vote of 415-14. On June 17, 2021, President Biden signed the bill into law, making Juneteenth the first day to attain legal observance as a federal holiday since Martin Luther King Jr. Day was designated by President Ronald Reagan in 1983.

As children of Abraham, we well understand the importance of this holiday. When our ancestors were held in captivity, enslaved by the Egyptians, God brought us Salvation through the Passover event. God commanded us to celebrate this day as a perpetual ordinance, and our ancestors did so from that day on.

This month, as we celebrate Pride Month, much focus is on the Queer community; but with Juneteenth, we also celebrate pride in the Black community. Both Pride Month and Juneteenth were born out of oppression. Both celebrations are held to restore dignity (pride, if you will) to folks who have had dignity stolen from them. Both celebrations are held in tension, knowing that oppression of their communities is far from over. Both celebrations are held clinging to the hope that one day Black, Brown and Queer children of God will be free to live as God Created them. Both celebrations are dreams of God’s Beloved Community.

This week, as we celebrate Pride Month and Juneteenth, our aspirational goal is to all Dream God’s Dream together; one Beloved Community. -by Pastor Rick
