FACILITY DISCIPLINE AND EDUCATIONAL PHILOSOPHY/POLICIES

THE DISCIPLINARY PHILOSOPHY AND POLICIES OF THIS FACILITY ARE:

Our staff operates under the premises that discipline means "to teach." Children will be given choices in order to have ownership in the learning that comes through discipline. Staff members will model use of positive language and give specific alternatives instead of "don't" and "no" as much as possible. All discipline will address behavior and the consequences of that behavior. Therefore, each situation will be individually assessed by a staff member. Discipline is based on rules we all need to learn and accept to function with others. Basic rules of kindness, courtesy, and safety will be enforced. Children in conflict will work with a staff member to solve the problem together. Staff members will be facilitators, encouraging fair play.

THE EDUCATION PHILOSOPHY AND POLICIES OF THIS FACILITY ARE:

Children learn by doing things that are meaningful to them. Our objective is to provide the children at Little One's Day Out with choices of appropriate activities that are fun, open-ended, and safe. The role of our staff is to observe and encourage the children where they are in the learning process. Each child is an individual in his/her preferences, pace, and way of learning. This is to be celebrated. We guide and encourage children's natural curiosity through playing, singing, cooking, reading, writing, and creating together in a Christian setting.
